- * * These copies are not fine, but they are interesting and valuable. The Athenæus has been carefully read by Porson, and he has numbered in the margin the corresponding pages in Casaubon's Edition. See his note at the beginning. The Strabo wants the Title; it formerly belonged to Bentley, and has his Autograph.

*.* "Acuna, a Missionary Jesuit, was dispatched by the Spanish Government to obtain circumstantial information respecting the River of the Amazons, and the best means of rendering its navigation easy and advantageous. On his return he produced the following work, which was printed at the expense of the King. The impression was scarcely completed when the Spanish Court heard of the Portuguese Revolution, the loss of the Brazils and the Colony of Para, on the Mouth of the Amazon: fearing, therefore, that this work, no longer useful to themselves, might afford important information to the enemy, it was suppressed, and the utmost diligence employed to regain and destroy the few copies which had gone forth. This accounts for its unusual rarity." Stanley Catalogue.

- 201 AMADIS DE GAULA. LOS QUATRO LIBROS DEL MUY EFFORCADO CAVALLERO AMADIS DE GAULA, NUEVAMENTE EMENDADOS Y HYSTORIADOS, with wood cut on the title, on the reverse is the privilege of Leo Xth to Antonius martini de Salamanca. Datum Romæ apud sanctum Petrum decimo nono Kal. Februarii, Anno sexto. The next leaf contains a Prologue, and the Romance commences on the recto of the third leaf, and finishes with two leaves of Table on the reverse of leaf 284. On the recto of leaf 282, is the following date. Acaban se a qui los quatro libros del efforçado e muy virtuoso cavallero Amadis de Gaula. En los quales se hallan muy por estenso las grandes aventuras y terribles batallas que en sus tiempos por el se acabaron y veneieron: y por otros muchos cavalleros assi de su linage: como amygos suyos. El qual fue impremido por Antonio de Salamanca. Acabose en el anno del nascimiento de nuestro salvador Jesu cristo de mill y quinientos y XIX. annos (1519) a XIII. dias del mes de April.

* * This is the earliest Spanish Edition of the Amadis de Gaula on record, except that of Salamanca, 1510, mentioned by Barbosa de Machado. It is excessively rare; see the Nouvelles Recherches of Brunet, who regrets that he could not give the description of it. The Privilege is for six books of the Amadis. It contains numerous wood cuts, but the present copy wants leaves 9 and 224.

* * This and the eight following lots form an extraordinary assemblage of the early Editions of this admirable Romance. Mr. Brunet in his Nouvelles Recherches has bestowed great pains in giving a correct list of the Editions, but the present series will supply several omitted by him.

- 202 — Los quatro libros de Amadis de Gaula nuevamente impressos y hystoriados en Sevilla, large copy with wood cuts, gilt leaves, ruled.

* * * "THIS IS ONE OF THE RAREST VOLUMES IN MODERN GREEK LITERATURE. A doubt had long existed whether Boccacio was the original author of the Story of his Theseid, or took it from this Greek Poem. Warton in his History of English Poetry awards the Honor of the Invention to Boccacio. "This Greek Poem, says Warton, is as little known and as scarce as Boccacio's Theseid. It is entitled, Θησεος και γαμος της Εμηλιας. It was printed at Venice in 1529. It is not mentioned by Crusius or Fabricius, but is often cited by Du Cange in his Greek Glossary. The heads of the Chapters are adorned with wooden cuts of the story," &c. &c. "It consists of Twelve Books and is written in Boccacio's octave stanza, the two last lines of every stanza rhyming together. The verses are of the Iambic kind and something like the VERSUS POLITICI which were common among the Greek Scholars a little before and long after Constantinople was taken by the Turks in 1443. It will readily be allowed, that the circumstance of the stanzas and rhymes is very singular in a Poem composed in the Greek Language, and is alone sufficient to prove this piece to be a translation from Boccacio." THIS EXTRAORDINARILY RARE VOLUME was purchased by Mr. Heber at Mr. Evans's, July, 1833, in whose catalogue it was described as above.

- 504 Camminga (Hedde van) Friesche Landregt, (in the Friesland dialect,) without date, numerals or catch-words, from the Meerman Collection. 4to.

The following is the translation of a note on a fly-leaf of this volume in Mr. Meermann's hand-writing.

" This is one of the most rare and curious books to be met with in the Low-Dutch Language. It is a Commentary on the old Friesland laws, written by the Chevalier Hedde van Camminga, Parochiaen, first at Dockum, afterwards at Aanjum. This appears from a MS. title which was prefixed to this copy by an amateur, which ran thus: It Rjuchtboeck fen alre Fryja freezena Freeska Landrjuecht, jen aade tieden beschriæwen, so az dat Vzaad di Keizer Kaarl Magnus to Room om it 800<sup>e</sup> Jeer, nei Christus, der nei Rodolf de Keizer, om't 1273<sup>e</sup> Jeer, droekt jen't Kleester, by Jr. Hedde fen Camminga, Parochyaan eerst to Dokkum, da to Aanjum. This book was therefore printed in a convent in Friesland, and from the type we may infer, about the year 1480, or without doubt before 1488; for a short memor<sup>m</sup>. on the verso of the last leaf, which though pasted down, may still be read if held against the light, purports that "In't jaer ons Heren dusent vier hondert en acht en tachtig, geschreven op den dag, doch schreven woert, Maria amor."

" This book, which has never been reprinted, is so exceedingly scarce, that not the smallest mention has ever been made of this or any other work of the same author, either by Siccama in Not. ad Leg. Frision. or Suffridus Petri de Scriptor. Frisiæ, or Valer. Andreas in Biblioth. Belgica, or Adr. Pars in syn Naemrol, or any other writer that I have consulted."

- 624 BEDÆ (VENERABILIS) HISTORIA ECCLESIASTICA GENTIS ANGLORUM, FIRST EDITION, blue morocco, by Lewis,
Sine ulla nota (circa MCCCCLXX.)

*.* "This first edition of the Ecclesiastical History of our Countryman Bede (and the only one printed before 1500) is so RARE, that I know of no other copy in England, except Lord Spencer's, procured for him only two or three years ago by Messrs. Payne and Foss from a sale at Amsterdam of part of the Library of the celebrated Antiquary, Mr. Koning, where it brought a very considerable sum, and cost his Lordship 40 guineas. Mr. Koning purchased it at Servais sale for 27 francs.

I have seen another copy in the Royal Library at the Hague.

Consult Panzer's Annales, I. p. 83. No. 445, with whose description the present copy agrees, as having double columns, 40 lines in a full column and 97 folia, without signatures, numerals or catchwords. I also concur with him in ascribing the type (a small Gothic) to Eggestejn at Strasbourgh rather than to Fyner, as Laire has done in his Account of Brienne's copy, Index I. p. 470. R. H. May, 1833."

- 625 Belianis. Historia del Valeroso e invencible Principe Don Belianis de Grecia, hijo del Emperador Don Belanio de Grecia, green morocco, VERY RARE, Burgos, 1587

Das hatt gedruckt Hanns Schönsperger in der Keyserliche stat Augspurg und vollendt am dornstag nechst vor Galli nach Christi gepurt MCCCC. und lxxxvij jar, wood cuts.

Panzer mentions six other editions of this favourite book of the XVth Century, printed by Hanns Schönsperger between the years 1478 and 1500; but this, which was published in 1487, appears to have escaped his researches, as well as those of all other bibliographers.

- 627 BERGOMENSIS (PHILIPPI) SUMA DE TODOS LAS CRONICAS

The celebrated edition of the Polish Bible published by the Socinians from the Vulgate, at the expense of Prince Nicolas Radzivil. The beginning and end of this copy are much damaged, and the prefatory matter is incomplete, the text of the Scriptures appears complete. This copy has four of the seven leaves of Alphabetical Table which were wanting in that which was sold in Part I. No. 1012.

- 655 CATECHISME (A Short), or playne Instruction, conteynnyng
 the summe of Christian learninge, sett foorth by the kings Majesties autorite (Edward VI.), for all Scholemaisters to teache, FINE COPY, VERY RARE, John Daye, 1553
- 656 — (Ane) or short Instruction of Christian Religion drawn out of the scripturs and ancient Doctours com-pyled be the Godlie and lerned father Peter Canisius Doctour in Theologie. With ane kallendar perpetuale maid by Adame King, scarce, purple velvet, with clasps,
Paris, 1588

657 CATECHISMS. A briefe Catecheticall Exposition of Christian Doctrine, 1633. A Catechisme. With a short Treatise concerning the profit and necessitie of Catechizing, 1617. R. Bernard's Josuahs Resolution for the well ordering of his household, 1629. The Sweet Milke of Christian Doctrine, 1617. A Short Catechisme corrected by W. Gouge, 1635. I. Gardiner's Confession of the Christian Fayth, for E. Wight, 1579. A Short Catechisme for Householders, T. Cotes, 1631. Grounds of the Christian Religion, 1632. The Common Catechisme enlarged by R. Bernard, 1635. R. Allein's Explanation of the common Catechisme, 1631. Grounds of Christian Religion, 1635. S. Hieron's Doctrine of the beginning of Christ, 1635. E. Fenton's Short Catechisme, 1636. The Foundation of Christian Religion, 1636, in 1 vol. fine copies. With the Crown and Prince of Wales's Feathers on the sides, probably the gift of Charles I. to his Son.

658 CATECHISMS. Nowell's Smallest Catechism, imperfect at the beginning, newly imprinted by the Assignes of John Daie, 1582. Edward Dering to the Christian Reader, introductory to his "little Catechisme," 1572, seven leaves, very curious, abusing by name various publications of Romances, &c. A Shorte Catechisme for Householders, I. Charlewood, 1583. Short Questions and Answeres, conteynning the Summe of the Christian Religion, imperfect, T. Dawson, 1583. A Booke of Christian Questions and Answeres, I. Harison, 1581. Certaine Short Questions and Answeres very profitable and necessary for yong Children, R. Waldegrave, 1582. Briefe Principles of Religion, by Christopher Watson, H. Singleton, 1581. A little Catechisme by Theodore Beza, H. Singleton, 1578. A Catechisme to bee learned of all youth next after the little Catechisme, I. Daye, 1583. J. Calvin's Catechisme, I. Kingston, 1582. A Catechisme appointed to be read in the Dominions of Frederike, County Palatine of the Rhein, H. Middleton, 1578. A Short summe of the whole Catechisme gathered by I. Craig, I. Wolfe, 1583. C. Shutte's Testimonie of a true Faith, T. Dawson, 1581. The Summe of Christianitie, T. Dawson, 1579. Godlie Private Praiers for Householders to meditate upon, I. Charlewood, imperfect. A very curious and interesting Volume of EXCEEDINGLY RARE Catechisms and Prayers. At the beginning is a copy of Mr. Churton's Note to Mr. Hatch, which commences thus. "In Mr. Brand's small thick volume of old Catechisms, the first torn and imperfect, is exceedingly curious, being either a Translation of Nowell's smallest Catechism, or the prior English Catechism, of which he says his small Latin Catechism is a faithful Translation I wish he may meet with a complete copy of it." As these Catechismes were printed chiefly for the use of "little children" it is not surprising that they should be very rare, and seldom found in a perfect state, this volume therefore will be sold with all faults.

- 659 CATECHISMES. A short Treatise containng all the Principall Grounds of Christian Religion, W. Stansby, 1635. John Mico's Spirituall Food and Physicke: viz. Milke for the Younger. Meat for the Stronger. The Substance of Divinitie. A Pill to Purge out Poperie, J. Boler, 1631. E. Elton's Forme of Catechising, J. Beale, 1629. Short questions and answeares, containng the Summe of Christian Religion, J. Dawson, 1634. Short Questions and Answeares, J. Dawson, 1627. H. Vesey's Scope of the Scripture, J. B. for S. Man, 1633, in 1 vol. very fine copies. Probably Charles II.'s book when Prince of Wales—he was not a "little child" likely to make much use of such a volume, which accounts for its perfect state.

* * * This is the first account ever published of the Discovery of America, and was unknown to Robertson when he wrote his History. Bound up with this are several Latin Orations, printed at Rome at the end of the XVth. Century. From Cardinal Fesch's Library.

- 842 BREYDENBACH. Dit werck inhoudende die heylighe beuarden tot dat heylighe grafft in iherusalem, en van daen totten berch Synai tot die heylighe maghet en martelarissee Sunte Katherin ghedruct doir meister Eerhaert rewich van vtrecht in die Stadt van mentz Int iaer ons heeren m.cccc. acht ende tachtich, opten xxiiij dach in Meye Endet salichlicken.

* * * The only allusion made to this translation of Breidenbach into the Flemish language, appears to be by Clement in his Bibl. Cur. Vol. v. p. 228, where he gives the following description of this rare volume; from which it would appear that the present copy wants the title.

"Cet ouvrage a d'abord été traduit en Flamand; et a été publié en 1488, in folio. M. Duve conserve cette édition très-rare, dont la première page du titre est en blanc. La seconde est ornée d'une planche gravée en bois, qui présente une dame debout sur un piedestal, qui tient à sa droite les armes de Breidenbach, avec cette souscription: "Bernhardus de Breidenbach decanus et Camerarius ecce Mogutine." A sa gauche l'on voit les armes du Comte de Solms, avec ces mots: "Johannes Comes i Solms et dns i Mintzeberg." Enfin le piedestal est couvert des armes de Bicken, avec cette inscription: "Philippus de Bicken miles."

Le second feuillet (the first in this copy) commence par l'inscription suivante: "Den eerweerdigsten vader in Xsto en here here Bartoldt Eertzebiscops des heilighen stoels vā Mens, &c."

A la fin de l'ouvrage parait la souscription citée ci-dessus. Cette édition n'a ni chiffres ni réclames, mais on y voit des signatures. Je crois qu'elle a été faite sur la Latine, car on y trouve le passage qui manque dans l'édition allemande. The wood cuts are similar to those in the editions of 1486, but not from the same blocks. A few leaves of this copy are a little damaged.

- 843 Breydenbach. Die fart oder reysz über mere zu dem heyligē grab unsers herren Ihesu cristi gen Iherusalem. Auch zu der heyligen junckfrawen sant Katherinen grab auf dem berg Synä.

Colophon :—Dies buch inhaltende die heiligen raisen gen Iherusalem zu dem heiligen grab uñ furbasz zu der hochgelobtē jückfrawen uñ martrein sant Katherinen durch Anthonio Sorgen inn der Keyserlichen statt Augspurg gedrucket. Im jar unsers hailz. Tausent vier hundert und lxxxviij. Am abend Jeorii des heiligen martres Enndet sich hye seligklichen.

*.* To give a description of this scarce reprint of Breydenbach, Panzer could only procure an imperfect copy from the Feuerlin library, and had never even seen it noticed but in Zapf's Hist. of the Augsb. press. It was unknown, says he, even to Clement. The wood cuts are eight in number, but are reversed from the former editions, as if they had been copied or transferred to other blocks, without numbers or catchwords, fine copy.

- 844 — Dis buch ist innhaltend die heiligē reysen gein Jherusalem zu dem heiligen grab und furbasz zu der hochgelobten jungfrowen und merteryn sant Katheryn.

The work concludes with the following words, without date or colophon. Ere sey Gott in der hohe.

Though without date, this excessively rare edition of Breydenbach's Travels appeared at Mentz in the same year as the original editions in Latin and German bearing the date of 1486, which it resembles in type. It contains the usual wood cuts found in those editions, but in this, immediately under the above title, is one representing the Holy Sepulchre. Neither Panzer nor Clement appear to have ever seen this edition, but refer to other sources; Brunet is silent respecting it, and it has not yet found a place amongst the rarities of the Spencer Library. The present is the identical copy alluded to in the Ædes Althorp. v. 2, p. 87, as containing the same cuts as the Mentz Germ. edition of Erhart Rewich, 1486, recently imported by Messrs. Payne and Foss, ancient binding, clasps, fine preservation.

ligio de diversas partes y de diversos auctores todas las obras que pudo hallar en metro compuestas de los auctores que en este genero de escrevir tenian auctoridad dende el tiempo de Juan de Mena hasta su tiempo. Y despues desta copilacion se hizo una adicion en la segunda impresscion de muchas cosas buenas y nuevas. E finalmente agora en esta ultima impresscion se han quitado del dicho Cancionero algunas obras que eran muy desonestas y torpes y se han annadido otras muchas assi di devocion como de moralidad. De manera que ya queda el mas copioso que se aya visto."

As a proof of the extraordinary rarity of this book, no copy will be found in any Sale Catalogue from Croft's to the present time; and among all the very rare books which have of late years been imported from Spain, no copy of the Cancionero General, in Folio, has appeared.

The present is in the finest possible condition, in the original stamped binding. The following extract of the Title at the commencement of the Poems, will give the best idea of its contents.

"Cancionero General de muchas y diversas obras de todos o de los mas principales trovadores de espana assi antiguos como modernos: en devocion: en moralidad: en amores: en burlas romances: villancicos: canciones: letras de invenciones: motes: glosas preguntas: respuestas."

 * * "This book formerly belonged to Francesco Melchiori of Venice, who has made it a depository for some curious papers, consisting of copies of manuscript verses by different members of the family. At the end is a Sonnet addressed to Tasso, on the Publication of Camilli's Continuation of the Gierusalemme, by Francesco Melchiori, with TASSO's SONNET IN REPLY, in his own hand-writing. At the beginning of the volume is preserved, what may be considered one of the most curious single printed leaves in existence, THE PRINTED CHALLENGE WHICH WAS CIRCULATED AND STUCK ON THE CHURCH DOORS IN VENICE, BY THE CELEBRATED ADMIRABLE CRICHTON, in the year 1580. This most extraordinary document not only proves the existence of this extraordinary man, but shews that what had hitherto been considered Sir Thomas Urquhart's Rhodomontade account of him was no exaggeration of his pretensions. It is printed in the large Italic type used by Aldus Manutius, and most probably by him, as his friendship for Crichton is well known. There is also a Manuscript Sonnet addressed to a Lady at the beginning. This volume formerly belonged to the family of the Earl of Orford." It afterwards became the property of Mr. Singer, and subsequently of Mr. Hibbert and of Mr. Hanrott, at the sale of whose library it was purchased by Mr. Heber.

" The Author was of the noble family of De Burgh, Earls of Clanricarde. He was Abbot of Clare and Vicar Apostolic "nel Regno sempre Catolico d'Irlanda." The first 180 pages of Vol. I. are devoted entirely to events of the time in which the Author was engaged in Ireland, and contain many particulars relating to Oliver Plunkett and other Catholics, who suffered on account of their Religion in the time of Charles II. De Burgo was himself imprisoned and persecuted for exercising his Apostolic functions."

* * * This forms a fourth volume to the "Viaggio di cinque Anni," and is EXTREMELY RARE; it is a very curious volume, containing interesting stories, Spanish Proverbs, &c. The author in his preface says, "Ma perche per l'ordinario segue, che nel tempo che prendono l'acque, ò si usano li Bagni, le persone stando oziose non abbiano ad esser rinrescevoli, hovvi aggiunto, per divertimento loro 300 e piu risposte ingegnose di Personaggi, ed uomini celebri, colla lettura delle quali, non solo staranno allegramente, ma la medema allegrezza coadjuvara molto all'operazione intrinseca, ed estrinseca di detta acqua, giacche evidentemente si dice, anco per prova, che la malinconia impedisce la virtuosa operatione delle medeme."

Translated oute of Frenche into oure materall Englysshe tongue by John Bouchier knyghte Lorde Berners, 4 vol. in 2, in russia, very fine copy, from the Towneley Collection,

Imprinted at London in Fletestrete by Rycharde Pynson printer to the kynges moost noble grace, 1523-1525.

* * "Of Vol. I. of this translation of Froissart, Pynson printed one Edition. Myddleton two. Of Vol. II. Pynson printed two Editions, a fact which is not generally known."

"As the three Editions of Volume I. tally page for page, it becomes difficult to distinguish them apart when the title and colophon are wanting, or when, as continually happens, copies are made up by leaves taken from different editions. To establish certain general criteria to decide to which of the 3 any single leaf belongs, as it may present itself, seems desirable. These criteria may be drawn from the general form of the characters, the appearance of the page and press-work, and perhaps the quality of the paper. Secondly, from the blooming capitals, as they are called, at the different chapters and sections, and which bear different devices apparently in all 3. Thirdly, from certain peculiar forms of certain Letters whether Capitals or not, used by one and not by the other. Fourthly, from the arrangement and orthography of the running titles and the pagination."

"I have collated Vol. I. and find it remarkably clean and sound, and tho' not large in the margins yet not to be complained of. To make sure, I have gone over it twice, once by the signatures and once by the numerals, and can safely state the following to be its only defects.

I. It has a reprinted modern title, the genuine one must be procured if possible, tho' hard to meet with.

II. Fol. VI. of text is inlaid and of the wrong edition, but my imperfect vol. I. will set this to rights and supply the deficiency, (this has been done.)

III. Two lines in the colophon are pasted over and from the wrong Edition.

"The present copy of Vol. II. is quite perfect from title to colophon, and on the whole a tight clean genuine book, not a single leaf from the counterfeit edition being inserted, to the best of my knowledge and belief after two careful collations, once by signatures and again by numerals. This is hardly ever the case, and it requires a lynx-eye to be on ones guard against imposition in this respect, as the two editions tally page for page and the difference in turning over the leaves is not very discernible. On the whole it would not be easy to find among the known copies of Pynson's genuine Ed. a Vol. II. more unexceptionable than the present." Note by Mr. Heber.

1937 Froissart's Chronicle, by Lord Burners, 2 vol. in blue morocco, by Roger Payne, Printed by Pynson, 1525

*.* See MS. note by Mr. Heber relative to this copy in which he says, "the greatest objection to it, in my opinion, is, that it is made up of 3 editions.

1938 — Another Copy, 2 vol. in 1, from the Sheldon Collection, Printed by Middleton and Pynson, 1525

*.* See also MS. Note by Mr. Heber relative to this copy in which he says, "As a curiosity perhaps it may be worth while to keep (in addition) the 2 vol. bound in 1, russia, with the Arms and Autograph of "the great Ralph Sheldon of Beoly, inasmuch as both the vols. are different impressions from those mentioned over leaf, tho' both of inferior execution."

PART VI. DAY 9.

Folio.

- 1941 Geiler von Keisersperg (Johannes) Prédig der Himelfart Maria, (Sermons on the Ascension of the Virgin Mary), wood cuts, - - - Strassburg, 1512
- 1942 GELLII (AULI) NOCTES ATTICÆ, ex recognitione Joan. Andreae, FIRST EDITION, a very fine genuine copy, but slightly wormed. This is among the most difficult of the early classics to find in good condition, Romæ, in domo Petri de Maximis, MCCCCLXIX.
- 1943 — Noctes Atticæ, Ven. per Nic. Jenson, MCCCCLXXII.
- 1944 — Noctes Atticæ, Venetiis, MCCCCLXXVII.
- 1945 — Noctes Atticæ, old red morocco, Venetiis per Andream Jacobi Catharensem, 1477
- 1946 Germanicarum Originum ac Antiquitatum Libri, Leges videlicet Salicæ, Allemannorum, Saxonum, Angliorum, opera vero Bas. J. Herold, fine copy, yellow morocco, from De Thou's Collection, - - - Basil. 1557
- 1947 Gesta Rhomanorum cum Applicationibus moralisatis ac mysticis, sine loco, 1488. Postilla Guillelmi super Epistolas et Evangelia, Argent. 1490. Offici Misse totiusque Canonis expositio, sine nota, in 1 vol.
- 1948 Gesta Romanorum, (Dutch translation.)

Hier beginnen ter eren gods ende totter menschen leringue end salicheyt zeer notabile Hystorien ghetogen uten Gesten ofte croniken der Romeynen.

Dit boeck dat men hyet die gestē of die gheschiedenissen van romen is voleynt te Zwolle in den stichte van Utricht in der eren goods by my Peter van Os. Int iaer ons Heren M.CCC. en lxxxiiij. op ons liefs heren hemelvaert avont. in den mey. Lof. hebbe god.

"Two editions are mentioned, the one printed at Gouda by Gerard Leeu, 1481, and the other at Zwolle by Peter Van Os, 1484, both in fol. (Douce's Illustr. II. 359.) The former is described in the Cat. of Santander, II. 21. The present is the second, above stated, consisting of 82 Chapters and corresponding exactly with the Latin original.

The translation was probably made from the Gouda Edition of Ger. Leeu, 1480.

The present vol. is adorned with eight wood cuts on rather a large scale, evidently designed on purpose for this Edition, as they relate directly to the lines to which they are prefixed." MS. Note by Mr. Heber.

With the exception of one, the wood cuts contained in this curious volume are of the full size of the page. They are in rude outline, and very remarkable for their resemblance in design and execution to some of the early block books.

Neither Maittaire nor Panzer appear to have seen this rare specimen of the Zwolle press, and it is unnoticed by Brunet, Santander or Lambinet. It is not in the Spen. collection.

- 1949 Gesta Romanorum. Das buch Gesta Romanorum. Der Römer, von den Geschichten oder geschehen dingen gaistlichen und voeltlichen.

*.* For a description of this very rare edition of the Gesta Romanorum, Panzer refers to Zapf's History of the Augsburg Press. The above title is printed in five lines on the first leaf; but the work itself is in two columns, and contains 128 leaves, all numbered. At the end is the following colophon:

“Hie endet sich das buch das genant ist zu latein Gesta Romanorum, zu Teutsch dz buch von den geschichten oder geschehen dingen der Römer, gedrucket von Hannsen Schobser in der stat Augspurg Anno dñi M.cccc.lxxxix. jare am abend Mathie des heiligen czwelffpoten.” Blue velvet.

* * "These six tracts, 'in dem Kloster St. Ulrich gedrukt, 1473,' bear the same degree of rarity as our books printed at St. Albans." MS. Note by Mr. Heber.

This very rare production of the press, established by the Prior Melchior de Stamham, in the monastery of St. Ulrich and Afra, at Augsburg, is minutely described by Panzer. The entire volume contains 193 leaves, as mentioned in the Biblioth. Spenceriana, and is without numerals, signatures, or catchwords; one leaf is wanting in each of the two last tracts of the present copy, and the large wood cut of St. Gregory and Petrus Diaconus is also wanting.

* * This copy is PARTICULARLY INTERESTING AND VALUABLE, as the margins of the Text are crowded with Emendations and Notes in the HANDWRITING OF BENTLEY. The Notes are also enriched with MS. additions, but in a different hand. See the Preface of Bentley's Edition, where it appears that he collated the Codex Gemblacensis twice with this Edition.

- 2304 Manrique (Jorge) Coplas. Con Glosa en prosa nuevamente compuesta por Luys de Aranda, red morocco, Senza nota.

 * * Excessively rare. "Not mentioned by Brunet, (see however the Nouvelles Recherches) Marsden, Adlung, or Watt. In Ebert's Lexicon this book is to be found rather loosely cited under the name of the Author Mentrída, as Vocabulario de las lenguas Filipinas, Manila, 1637. Antonio's Account of the work is also incorrect, probably he had never seen it. I never saw another copy of this rare volume, which was brought by Mr. Dalrymple himself from the Philippine Islands in a very perishable state, much damaged by insects. I have since succeeded in arresting its further destruction, by C. Lewis's assistance, whose workman has shown much skill and dexterity in sizing, patching and binding it. At Sign. X 3, p. 327, &c. there is some irregularity in the order of the Text, arising from faulty press-work, but nothing, I believe is wanting." Note by Mr. Heber. The first part of the book is placed after the second, morocco,

The book concludes on the recto of folio 146, with the following address from the Printer and date.

El impressor al lector.

La complacencia de los amigos juntamente con la mucha importunidad de los curiosos han sido ocasion discreto letor de cortar el hilo de nostra tela y descansar en el medio camino de a quella. Y esto no por falta de ser acabada de traduzir la hystoria de nostro Morgante; sino por conplazer a muchos que dessean leer lo que esta impresso mientras se acaba de imprimir la segunda parte de la qual (mediante la gracia de aquel que nos la dio para acabar la primera) no quitaremos mano hasta dar fin a toda la obra. Adonde en la primera parte se mostraran las faceciosas burlas de Margute y las hazanosas victorias de Morgante. El fin de la Guerra de Babilonia con muchas otras grandes y valerosas empresas de reynaldos y roldan; y de todos los doze pares; con los sabrosos amores del señor de montalvan. Finalmente concluyremos dando fin en la batalla de ronces valles en la qual murieron los doze pares de francia; cosa de todos tan desseada quanto honrosa para nuestra nacion espanola.

A loor y gloria de Dios todo poderoso y de la sacratissima virgen Maria madre suya. Acabose el presente libro del valiente y efforcado Morgante; en la insigne ciudad de VALENCIA al moli dela rovella. Fue impresso por Francisco diaz Romano. A diez y seys dias del mes de setiembre. Anno de mil y quinientos y treynta y tres, (1533.) Impresso a costas y despensas del suso dicho im-

Whalley says in speaking of it, "This edition is extremely scarce, and is a very curious performance; and might be of excellent use to any modern in explaining our old words."
- 2837 PARKER (MATTHEUS) ARCHIEPISCOPUS CANTUARIENSIS DE ANTIQUITATE BRITANNICÆ ECCLESIE ET PRIVILEGIIS ECCLESIE CANTUARIENSIS, CUM EPISCOPIS EJUSDEM 70, An. Dom. 1572
- * * * This copy was not seen by Mr. Martin, and it differs from all those described by him in his account of privately printed books. It does not contain any of the additional pieces. It wants after page 4 the two leaves containing 4 a. b. c. d.; it wants also pp. 359-362, two leaves; and pages 357, 358, 363, 364, are repeated. The Title-page is printed upon Vellum, and it contains the wood cuts of the Schools at Cambridge and the Arms of the College on two leaves, and the Arms of the Abp. and the Bishops on one leaf. The present copy was formerly in the possession of Roger Twysden, and has his Autograph and some MS. additions by him. On the 10th of October, 1642, he gave 35s. for it—a high price in those days.

- * * * This is a reprint of the following Low Saxon translation of the lives of the Saints, but in a smaller type, and many of the wood cuts different. This copy wanted a few leaves, but it is perfected from another copy.

- 2850 Petrarcha (Fr.) Sonetti, Canzoni e Trionfi, first edition, fine sound copy in old red morocco, but the last leaf of the Text is supplied by MS. and two leaves of the Table are reprinted, extremely rare,

Venetii Vindelinius de Spira, MCCCCLXX.

- 2851 — SONETTI E TRIONFI, EXTREMELY RARE, Lauraguais' copy, in blue morocco, ruled. The first page of the Sonnets has an illuminated border, and the Text in Letters of Gold. The first Letter of every Sonnet is likewise in Gold. On the last leaf is a Manuscript Sonnet to the Tomb of Petrarch. Patavii Martinus de Septem Arboribus Prutenus, MCCCCLXXII.

- 2852 PETRARCHA SONETTI E TRIONPHI, A VERY RARE EDITION, Venetius (per Jenson), MCCCCLXXIII.

* * * This very interesting copy was formerly in the Pinelli Collection, it contains a MS. Commentary by Antonio da Tempo, who has likewise added at the end three MS. Sonnets, which he says he copied from a Manuscript in the handwriting of Petrarch. See the whole of Mr. Singer's Note, russia.

- 2853 — (Fr.) Triumphi col Commento di Messer Bernardo da Sena, wormed. This is only the latter volume of this rare edition, Venexia, per Theod. de Reynsburch, 1478

- 2854 — de los Remedios contra Prospera y adversa Fortuna, title, &c. damaged, Sevilla por J. Cromberger, 1513

- 2855 — Triumphos de, en Castellano por Antonio de Obregon, wood cuts, fine copy, bound by Lewis, Sevilla, 1532

- 2856 — Translacion de los seys triumphos de Francisco Petrarca, y glossados por Antonio de Obregon, Vallad. 1541

- 2857 — Griseldis (in German), 10 very curious wood cuts, (1474), 12 leaves, no title, colophon, numerals, catchwords or signatures, small fol.

* * * The first page of this excessively rare and perhaps unique copy of this ancient and popular story, is ornamented with a flowery border (on a branch of which hangs a shield with two hammers crost), and begins thus :—

“ So ich aber von stättikait und getrüwer gemahelschafft so manger frowen geschriben habe, und von kainer grössern über die Grisel von der franciscus petrarcha schrybet, doch usz johānis boccacij welsch in latin, und von mir usz latin in tütsch gebracht.”

The above date (1474) occurs four times ; on the 4th, 6th, 10th and 12th leaves, but they are all in MS. This circumstance does not tend to diminish its antiquity, for they are unquestionably inserted by an illuminator of that period, and, consequently, like the dateless Bible of 1455, would imply that the impression may be even of an earlier date. This curious little vol. was evidently unknown to Panzer (Supp. Annal. p. 22), he does indeed mention a dateless edition which had been noticed previously by Braun, printed with the type used by Anton. Sorg of Augsburg ; but Sorg only began to print at Augsburg in 1475, (v. Lichtemberg. Init. Typ. p. 192), and it contained only 10 leaves, and terminated on the verso of the 10th leaf, and ended at the 10th line with lebt in seligheit. This Edition may therefore be considered to have escaped the research of every bibliographer.

- 2867 Platonis Opera Omnia per Janum Cornarium Latina Lingua conscripta. Ejusdem J. Cornarii Eclogæ, fine copy, elegantly bound in calf, by Lewis, Basileæ, 1561
*.* "I was first indebted to my learned and venerable friend, Dr. Routh, President of Magd. Coll. Oxford, for a knowledge of this rare and valuable translation of Plato, which to a Platonic student is of the greatest intrinsic importance. Dr. R. was much gratified in meeting with a copy in the Cat. of Dyer, of Exeter, from the valuable Library of Portledge in Devonshire. Many years passed over before I was fortunate enough to obtain the present, the only one I have since fallen in with, and which belonged to the learned Mr. Sedgwick, whose Pencil notes and references are occasionally written on the margin." "I have carefully compared this Dutch Translation of Raoul le Fevre's Recueil des Histoires de Troye with my copy of Caxton's English Translation, reprinted by Copeland, and find they correspond exactly throughout. I also have satisfied myself that the present copy wants nothing, except perhaps an index of chapters to Book I. which may have occupied K. 8, and a similar one to Book II. which may have occupied V. 6. Still it is very possible K. 8, and V. 6, may have been only blank leaves." MS. Note by Mr. Heber.

- *.* This is a fine and perfect copy of the same edition of this uncommonly rare Flemish translation of the Game of Chess moralised as the one in the Spencer Library, which wants the signature B 1; but the present (though the spaces are left for them) contains no coloured drawings. In the fourth volume of the Spencer Catalogue it is said to be unnoticed by Visser, and is designated first in the index as having been printed at Antwerp, in 1497; then, under the title (p. 541), as at Gouda, in the same year. It is, however, evident that it was printed at Gouda, not only from the following colophon, dated neghentseventich, or 1479, and not 1497, but, if further proof were necessary, from the well known circumstance of Gerard Leeu having left Gouda for Antwerp in 1484. On referring to Visser also, it will be found that he has inserted the Scaecspel under its proper date, and refers to Scriverii Laurecrauz, p. 89.

Int jaer ons heren dusent vierhondert ende neghentsseuentich. op ten anderden dach van october. soe is dit ghenoechlyche boek voleynt en ghemaect ter goude in hollant by my gheraert leeu. lof heb god.

Leven der Heiligher Vaderen. Hier beghint sinte Iheronimus voerspraec in den eersten boec van den leven der heiliger vaderen in der woestinen hoer leven leydende, - - - - - (1480).

* * Excepting Visser, this curious production of the Gouda press seems to have escaped the researches of bibliographers. It is printed with the same type as the Scaecspel, which is bound up with the present volume, and concludes thus:

“Hier eynden die vyf boeken van dat leven ende conversacy der heyliger vaderen.

The shields are below, but without the initials of the printer.

- 3309 Schildtberger's Abenteurẽ in den landen der Heydens-schafft, 14 very curious wood cuts, 47 leaves, without title, printer's name, place, date, signatures, numerals or catch-words, elegantly bound in blue morocco, by Lewis.

The work begins thus :—

“ Ich Schildtberger zoche ausz von meiner heimet mit Namen ausz der stat München gelegen in Bayern, in der zeyt als König Sigmund zu Ungern in die Hey-denschafft zoch, das was als man zalt von Cristi geburt dreizechen hundert und an dem vier und neuntzigsten Jar, mit einem Herren genandt Leonhart reychẽtinger, und kam ausz der Heydenschafft wyder zeland, als man zalt von den geburt Cristi, vierzehen hundert und in dem syben und zweintzigsten iar.”

*.* Panzer mentions an edition of this excessively rare volume without date or printer's name, which he found in Schwarz's Catal. Part II. p. 128, and which he conjectures might have been printed by Jo. Zainer of Ulm, but as the present is not a production of that press, it is evident it was unknown to him, and probably to every other bibliographer.

The following notice of Hans Schildtberger is from Aventin, in his Annalib. p. m. 805 :—

Joannes Schildtberger tum puer, Monachio oppido Bojariæ ortus, captus, ob elegantiam formæ a filio Basaitis servatus, in aula Turcarum educatus et victo Basaite a Tamerlano rege Persarum, arma victoris secutus est, et tandem mortuo Tamerlane in patriam postliminio reversus a Cubiculo Alberto avo Principum nostrorum fuit. Istud prælium, et alia a se in Asia visa et gesta, literarum memoriæ mandavit.

The work concludes with the Pater Noster in the Armenian and Tartar languages.

Panzer only knew of the existence of this curious and rare vol. from Zapf's mention of it in his History of the Augsburg Press, who describes it from a copy in the St. Ulrich library in that city. He says it has no title, but commences with the following inscription at the head of the table of contents, which occupies four pages.

Hie seind geschriben die capitel des buchs das do der Seusse heisset und die sal derselben capitel und an welchem blat man das findet.

The present copy contains 146 leaves, and though it only begins with the preface to the 2nd book, the numerals run regularly from page 1 to the end.

Folio.

- 3512 SPANISH AMERICA. A COLLECTION OF ABOVE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY MEMORIALS (BOTH IN PRINT AND MANUSCRIPT) PRESENTED TO THE COURT OF SPAIN FROM THE SPANISH COLONIES, 2 vol. in red morocco, from the Colbert Collection, purchased by Mr. Heber at Dalrymple's Sale; see his long note, which concludes in the following manner:—

“The importance of their contents, the following extract from the preface to Dr. Robertson's History of America, will best testify.”

“From the valuable collection of Voyages made by Alexander Dalrymple, Esq., with whose attention to the History of Navigation and Discovery the Public is well acquainted, I have received some very rare books, particularly two large volumes of Memorials, partly Manuscript and partly in Print, which were presented to the Court of Spain during the Reigns of Philip III. and Philip IV. From these I have learned many curious particulars with respect to the Interior state of the Spanish Colonies, and the various schemes formed for their improvement. As this collection of Memorials formerly belonged to the Colbert Library, I have quoted them by that title.”

Some of the latter pieces are injured by damp, but are in the same state as when bound for Colbert.

A curious collection in 1 vol. from the Towneley Sale.
- 3515 STATII (P. PAPINII) THEBAIDOS Libri XII, an EXTREMELY RARE Edition if not the first. It is without date, place or name of the printer, and terminates on the recto of the 139th leaf with Deo Gratias. “It wants the Achilleid, and is the same as that described in Bibl. Spencer. Vol. II. p. 368, No. 440. The type (as first suggested by Count Delci, and assented to by Lord Spencer) is doubtless that of Corallus.” See Mr. Heber's Note.
- 3516 Statii (Publii Papinii) Sylvæ, a portion of the edition of Catullus, Tibullus, &c. printed at Venice, 1475, fine copy, red morocco.

Hier beghint die tafel van Tondalus vysioen. Then commences the legend, on the recto of the second leaf:

Hier beghint een boeck ende es van Tondalus vysioen, ende hoe syn ziele uten lichame ghenomen was. And on the recto of the last leaf is the following colophon:

Hier eyndet en gaet wt een boeck van Tondalus vysioen ende hoe dat syn ziele wt syn lichaem ghenomen was. ENDE IS GHEPRENT TANTWERPEN BI MI MATHYS VAN DER GOES, ANNO M.CCCC.LXXIJ.

*.* As the present copy contains the device of Mr.

Verdussen of Antwerp, it is certainly the identical one which, whilst in his possession, gave rise to so much discussion respecting the correctness of its date, AND THE INTRODUCTION OF PRINTING INTO THE LOW COUNTRIES. From the Verdussen it passed into the Gasparoli and Inglis Collections. It is of excessive rarity; for Mr. V's. copy was the only one known to Visser; and Santander does not mention any other. Lambinet, in speaking of this copy, calls it Phœnix, or unique.

Azi feneix lo libre del valeros e strenu Cavaller Tirant lo Blanch Princep: e Cesar del Imperi grech de Contestinoble. Lo qual fon traduit de Angles en lengua Portoguesa e apres en vulgar lengua valenciana per lo magnifich e virtuos cavaller mossen johanot martorell lo qual per mort sua non pogue acabar de traduir sino les tres parts; La quarta part que es la fin del libre es stada traduïda a pregaries de la noble Senyora Dña Ysabel de Lorig per lo magnifich cavaller mossen Marti johan de Galba: e si de falt hi sera trobat vol sia atribuit a la sua ignorancia, Al qual nostre senyor Jesu Crist per la sua inmensa bondat vulla donar en premi de sos treballs la gloria de paradís. E protesta que si en lo dit libre haura posades algunes coses que no sien catholiques que no les vol haver dites, ans les remet a correccio de la sancta catholica Iglesia

Fon acabada de empremtar la present obra en la Ciutat de Valencia a xx del mes de Nohembre del ay de la nativitat de nostre Senyor deu Jesu Crist mil MCCCCLXXXX

* * * "This is the identical copy of Tirant lo Blanch described by Mendez, in his Typographia Española. It was brought from el Nuevo Bastan, in October 1824, and no other copy is known to exist in Spain. This Romance is one of the few spared from the flames by the Curate in his scrutiny of Don Quixote's Library." O. Rich.

But one other copy of this First Edition of Tirant Lo Blanch in the Limosin dialect, is now known, which is in the Vatican. The beauty and matchless condition of the present, cannot be surpassed. It was purchased by Mr. Heber for 300 guineas.
